STANDING RULES OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE ORTHODOX PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Chapter I. OF MEMBERSHIP

1. The roll of voting commissioners in each Assembly shall include no others than the Moderator and Stated Clerk of the previous Assembly, the Stated Clerk of the current Assembly, and such ministers and elders as are commissioned by the respective presbyteries in accordance with the provisions of these Standing Rules.
2. The General Assembly's Stated Clerk shall, under ordinary circumstances, inform each presbytery of the representation in the coming Assembly to which it is entitled; such notice to be sent not less than three months prior to the convening of the Assembly.
3. The Stated Clerk shall determine each presbytery's representation by the following procedure:
  - a. All representations shall be based on the statistical reports for the calendar year preceding that in which the most recent regular Assembly was held.
  - b. Figures for the denomination shall be computed for:
    - i. the total number of ministers; and
    - ii. the total number of churches, excluding churches that list no members.
  - c. The total number of commissioners shall be one hundred fifty exclusive of the Moderator and Stated Clerk of the previous Assembly and of those added as provided below to resolve ties.
  - d. The number in c. above shall be divided into two numbers (A and B, rounded to the nearest integers) bearing the same proportion to each other that the numbers in b.i. and b.ii. above bear to each other. The number A shall be the number of ministerial commissioners, unless it exceeds 60% of the number in c. above, in which case the number of ministerial commissioners shall be the integer nearest to 60% of the number in c. above. The balance of the commissioners shall be ruling elders.
  - e. Base figures for each presbytery shall be computed for:
    - i. the total number of ministers on its roll; and
    - ii. the total communicant membership of the churches within its bounds, exclusive of ministers.
  - f. The base figures in e.i. shall be multiplied by the fraction obtained by dividing the number of ministerial commissioners determined in d. above by the total number of ministers found in b.i. above. Each presbytery shall be entitled to ministerial commissioners equal in number to the whole numbers obtained, and such additional commissioners as are apportioned by the method of major fractions (as in h. below).
  - g. The base figure in e.ii. shall be multiplied by the fraction obtained by dividing the number of ruling elder commissioners determined in d. above by the total number of communicant members of the church exclusive of ministers. Each presbytery shall be entitled to ruling elder commissioners equal in number to the whole numbers obtained, and such additional commissioners as are apportioned by the method of major fractions (as in h. below).
  - h. Fractional remainders from the multiplication above shall be arranged in descending order. Beginning with the largest in each group, each of these fractions shall be counted as a whole number until the totals of all such whole numbers (from f. and g.) equal the numbers A and B found in d. above. In the event of ties in the lowest fractions to be so counted as whole numbers the total may be increased by not more than three; if four or more such fractions are tied, none of them shall be counted as whole numbers.
4. If an error in the statistical report of any presbytery is discovered, subsequent to the notification of presbyteries as to their respective representations, and prior to the completion of the roll call of the Assembly, that presbytery's representation shall be adjusted accordingly; provided that, in no case shall such a presbytery be entitled to more than one additional commissioner, and the total number of commissioners shall not exceed one hundred and fifty-five. Adjustments shall be made in the order in which such errors are reported to the Assembly's Stated Clerk. Representations of other presbyteries shall not be changed by such adjustments.
5. Presbyteries shall choose as commissioners only those who are members at the time of their selection. Those chosen shall represent that presbytery even though they may have transferred their membership to another presbytery before the dissolution of the Assembly to which they were commissioned. A minister shall not be chosen to serve in the place of an elder-commissioner, nor an elder in the place of a minister-commissioner.

6. Commissioners chosen for a particular Assembly shall be the commissioners to any adjourned session of that Assembly.
7. Commissioners to a special Assembly shall be chosen for that Assembly in the proportions determined for the immediately preceding regular Assembly.
8. Election of commissioners and alternates for a regular General Assembly shall be held so that the Stated Clerk may be notified of the elections no later than ten weeks prior to the General Assembly. The clerks of the presbyteries shall certify promptly the election of these commissioners and alternates to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly in writing, and shall also certify promptly to him, in writing, the withdrawal of commissioners and the alternates who replace them. Certification of ruling elder commissioners shall include their full names, addresses, telephone numbers, and email addresses.
9. Any Standing or Special committee of the Assembly may send not more than three presbyters to sit as corresponding members of the Assembly in order to present its report. Such corresponding members shall be entitled to the privilege of the floor in all matters concerning their respective committees, and shall also be entitled to travel, room and board compensation on the same basis as a voting commissioner. If members of such committees are elected as commissioners to the Assembly, the committees should avoid unnecessary appointment of corresponding members of the Assembly.
10. With regard to churches in a relationship with the OPC described in the Assembly's Rules for Ecclesiastical Relationships:
  - a. Fraternal delegates sent by churches in Ecclesiastical Fellowship may be seated as corresponding members of the Assembly, with full privileges of the floor (i.e., entitled to deliberate and advise, but not to vote).
  - b. Official representatives sent by churches in Corresponding Relations may be seated as corresponding members of the Assembly, with the privilege of the floor during the time of their bringing greetings to the Assembly on behalf of the churches that sent them.
  - c. Official observers sent by churches in Ecumenical Contact may be seated as corresponding members of the Assembly, with the privilege of the floor during the time of their bringing greetings to the Assembly on behalf of the churches that sent them.

Chapter II. OF OPENING THE MEETING

1. The Moderator shall take the chair precisely at the hour to which the Assembly stands adjourned, and shall immediately call the members to order; and, on the appearance of a quorum, the meeting shall be opened with prayer.
2. If a quorum be assembled at the time appointed, and the Moderator of the preceding Assembly be absent, the last Moderator present, being a commissioner, or if there be none, the senior member present, shall be requested to take his place without delay, until a new election.
3. If a quorum be not assembled at the hour appointed, any two members shall be competent to adjourn from time to time, that an opportunity may be given for a quorum to assemble.

CHAPTER III. OF OFFICERS OF THE ASSEMBLY

- A. The Moderator
  1. The Moderator of the General Assembly shall be elected from among the voting commissioners to the Assembly.
  2. It shall be the duty of the Moderator, at all times, to preserve order and to endeavor to conduct all business before the Assembly to a speedy and proper result.
  3. He is to propose to the Assembly every subject of deliberation that comes before it.

4. He may propose what appears to him the most regular and direct way of bringing any business to issue.
5. He shall always announce the names of members to whom he gives the privileges of the floor, prevent members from improperly interrupting each other, and require them, in speaking, always to address the chair.
6. He shall prevent a speaker from deviating from the subject, and from using personal reflections.
7. He shall silence those who refuse to observe order.
8. He shall, when the deliberations are ended, put the question and call for the vote.
9. In all questions he shall give a clear and concise statement of the question being voted upon, and the vote being taken, he shall declare how the question is decided.
10. It shall be the duty of the Moderator to keep notes of the several articles of business which may be assigned for particular days, and to call them up at the time appointed.
11. The Moderator shall speak to points of order in preference to other members; and shall decide questions of order, subject to an appeal to the judicatory by any two members. When in doubt on a point of order, the Moderator may submit the question to the Assembly for decision. The Moderator may appoint a parliamentarian to assist him in arriving at these decisions.
12. The Moderator shall appoint all committees, except in those cases in which the Assembly shall decide otherwise. He shall name a convener of each special committee of the Assembly, whether elected or appointed. Ordinarily the first person appointed, or the person elected with the highest number of votes, shall be named convener.
13. He may call any member to the chair to preside temporarily.
14. When a vote is taken by ballot, the Moderator shall vote with the other members. In other cases, if the Assembly be equally divided, he shall possess the casting vote. If he be not willing to decide, he shall put the question a second time; and if the Assembly be again equally divided, and he decline to give his vote, the question shall be lost. The Moderator may also vote to make a tie when the vote is not by ballot.
15. He shall be the custodian of the gavel during the Assembly and shall, upon the election of the Moderator of the succeeding Assembly, present the gavel to him.
16. The Moderator shall determine and announce to the Assembly, prior to the receiving of any offering at the opening of the General Assembly, the denominational cause to which that offering will be devoted.

Chapter V. OF REPORTS, OVERTURES, APPEALS, AND COMPLAINTS

1. Reports of Special and Standing Committees to the Assembly shall be prepared in outline form modeled on the Guidelines for Style prepared by the Stated Clerk. A report shall include at the beginning a Synopsis, in outline form, of the contents of the report. Reports of a few paragraphs and less than one page need not necessarily use this format.
2. To receive a report means to bring the matter up for consideration or adoption or both. When a report or paper has been read on the floor it is then in that position, and no motion to receive is necessary. A motion to receive is necessary only if no place has been provided for the matter on the docket and the Assembly desires to consider it at a certain time in the order of business. In this case a motion to receive the report should precede the reading of the report.
3. If a report or paper contains only a statement of fact or opinion for the information of the Assembly, there is no necessity for action upon it. But if the Assembly desires to endorse the statement and thus make itself assume responsibility for it, the proper motion is to adopt it.
4. If a report or paper contains a recommendation, there should be a motion to adopt the recommendation. If there is more than one recommendation, the normal procedure is to consider the recommendations seriatim on motions to adopt them.
5. When a report of a Standing or Special Committee has been brought to the floor, the following order and time allocations shall be followed:
  - a. Presentation of the report of the Committee for up to 15 minutes. Presentation of audio/visuals to supplement a report, not to exceed 15 minutes, and reports from missionaries, chaplains, and the Short-Term Missions Coordinator and the Disaster Response Coordinator, not to exceed 10 minutes each, shall

- be made at this time. Such audio/visuals shall have been previewed by Advisory Committees for their information in preparing their reports.
- b. Presentation of the minority report(s) of the Committee for up to 15 minutes each
  - c. Presentation of the report of the Advisory Committee for up to 10 minutes
  - d. Presentation of the minority report(s) of the Advisory Committee for up to 10 minutes each
  - e. Following the presentation of all reports, commissioners may, for up to 30 minutes:
    - (1) Ask questions about the report(s)
    - (2) Discuss portions of the report(s) not related to a recommendation

During this period, a commissioner shall, after having been recognized, announce whether he is asking a question(s) about the report(s), or discussing a portion(s) of the report not related to a recommendation; discussion of portions of the report(s) related to a recommendation is out of order. A questioner may have up to one minute to ask his question.
  - f. Debate and action on all pending recommendations in the following order:
    - (1) Procedural recommendation(s) of the Advisory Committee or its minority(s)
    - (2) Recommendation(s) of the Committee
    - (3) Recommendation(s) of the minority(s) of the Committee
    - (4) Recommendation(s) of the Advisory Committee
    - (5) Recommendation(s) of the minority(s) of the Advisory Committee
  - g. Recommendations under f.(1) above shall not have the effect of preventing a recommendation of the Committee or of the minority of the Committee from being considered.
6. When an overture has been brought to the floor, the following order and time allocations shall be followed:
    - a. Presentation of the overture by the presbytery's representatives for up to 30 minutes
    - b. Presentation of the report of the Advisory Committee for up to 15 minutes
    - c. Presentation of the minority report(s) of the Advisory Committee for up to 10 minutes each
    - d. Following the presentation of the overture and all reports, commissioners may, for up to 30 minutes, ask questions about the overture and the report(s)
    - e. Debate and action on all pending recommendations in the following order:
      - (1) Procedural recommendation(s) of the Advisory Committee or its minority(s)
      - (2) Petition(s) of the overture, which shall be the main motion(s). With regard to such, the Advisory Committee (or minority(s) thereof) may report its advice regarding whether the overture, either as a whole or in part, should be adopted or denied, or the Advisory Committee (or minority(s) thereof) may propose an amendment(s) or substitute(s) to the main motion(s).
      - (3) Other recommendation(s) of the Advisory Committee
      - (4) Other recommendation(s) of the minority(s) of the Advisory Committee
  7. It is in some cases advisable, after a report or paper has been received, to refer the matter to a Special Committee of the Assembly which is to report at a later time in the Assembly. In that event all consideration of the matter is postponed until the Special Committee reports.
  8. All reports of Committees, and other papers read on the floor of the Assembly, shall be recorded in the Minutes as read. If the matters presented in such reports or papers are to become the action of the Assembly, any difference between the original form of the paper as read on the floor and the final action of the Assembly shall be recorded as amendments to the motion to adopt the report or paper.
  9. If a paper is not read on the floor of the Assembly, it may, on motion, be recorded in the Minutes, provided that it has been presented to the commissioners in writing at least two weeks prior to the Assembly, or if ordered by the Assembly.
  10. Reports of Standing Committees that are to be included in the agenda shall be in the hands of the Stated Clerk eight weeks prior to the Assembly, except the report of the Standing Committee on Appeals and Complaints, which shall be in the hands of the Stated Clerk six weeks prior to the General Assembly; reports of Special Committees, in order to be in the agenda, shall be in the hands of the Stated Clerk ten weeks prior to the Assembly.

11. Each Standing or Special Committee that depends upon the General Assembly Operation Fund for its expenses shall include in its reports to the Assembly an estimate of its expenses for the ensuing year.
12. Any proposal recommending the erection of a new Standing or Special Committee shall include an estimated budget for that committee, if it is to draw upon the General Assembly Operation Fund for its expenses.
13. Appeals and complaints, together with the basic relevant records and papers, shall be in the hands of the Stated Clerk, in quadruplicate, or in a digital form acceptable to the Stated Clerk, eight weeks prior to the Assembly.

Chapter VI. OF SPECIAL ORDERS DURING A GENERAL ASSEMBLY

A. NEW PROPOSALS/QUESTIONS.

1. Commissioners who come to the Assembly prepared with proposals or questions relating to a matter assigned to an Advisory Committee shall present such proposals and/or questions to such Advisory Committee.
2. Any motion offered in the course of the Assembly which is not germane to a pending recommendation, but is related to the current docketed item, shall be referred to an Advisory Committee. If sufficiently novel as to be, in the judgment of the Moderator, new business, it may return to the floor only with the Advisory Committee's recommendation, or a minority thereof, and only under Unfinished Advisory Committee Business. Should the Assembly subsequently not act affirmatively on the matter, all reference to it shall be expunged from the Minutes and from the report of the Advisory Committee (unless specifically required).
3. Only matters unrelated to docketed items may be proposed under Miscellaneous Business.

B. MINUTES. The Minutes of the Assembly shall be approved, without being read to the Assembly, in the following manner:

1. The printed Minutes of previous sessions normally shall be distributed by the mid-morning recess, beginning with the first full day of business. After the lunch recess, at the call of the Moderator, the Minutes shall be presented for approval.
2. On the final day of the Assembly
  - a. Copies of the Minutes of the previous day shall be distributed to the commissioners at the earliest possible time. At an appropriate time the Moderator shall call for the approval of the Minutes and, if necessary, require the Clerk to read them to the Assembly.
  - b. Later, at a convenient time, the Moderator shall call for the reading of the Minutes of that day by the Clerk for approval, following which the Assembly shall vote on approval of the Minutes as a whole.

C. PRESBYTERIAL RECORDS and STANDING COMMITTEE RECORDS. The Committee to Examine Presbyterial Records and the Committee to Examine Standing Committee Records shall prepare reports for distribution prior to the noon recess on the third full day of business. Interested parties shall present reactions to these reports to the appropriate Committee no later than the recess for dinner the same day, and the Committees shall resolve any matters brought to their attention insofar as possible. The final reports shall be presented for adoption the following morning as the first orders of the day without being read to the Assembly (suspending Standing Rule, Chapter V, Section 7), by vote on the reports as a whole, unless the Committee deems it necessary to bring a weighty matter to the floor separately, or unless the Assembly determines to divide the question.

D. EXCEPTIONS.

1. The limitations of above A. and Standing Rule VII.1. do not apply when the Assembly is sitting in judicial capacity, reverting instead to Robert's Rules of Order (Standing Rule XIV.1).
2. When, in the judgment of the Moderator, timely completion of the business of the Assembly comes into question, he may propose further restrictions on time for debate and/or length of speeches.

- E. REQUESTS TO ADDRESS THE ASSEMBLY. This paragraph applies to all requests to address the Assembly on behalf of institutions, ministries, or vendors that are not committees erected by the Assembly pursuant to Chapter X.
1. All such requests to address the Assembly shall be made in writing (on official letterhead stationery) and received by the Stated Clerk not later than ten days before the opening of the Assembly.
  2. No such request shall be printed in either the Minutes or the Agenda materials of the Assembly.
  3. At the conclusion of presenting other communications to the Assembly (see Standing Rule IV.4), the Stated Clerk shall read to the Assembly a list of the institutions, ministries, or vendors that have requested permission to address the Assembly. The Moderator shall then seek general consent to grant each such request seriatim.
  4. If there is an objection to granting such request of one or more particular institutions, ministries or vendors, then those requests to which objection is raised shall be referred to a temporary committee of three former Moderators and/or Stated Clerks of the Assembly appointed by the Moderator, which shall bring back, at the call of the Moderator, a recommendation regarding the granting of each request referred to it; the debate on each such recommendation shall be limited to one one-minute speech in favor of, and one one-minute speech opposed to, the granting of each request so referred.
  5. All presentations for which permission to address the Assembly is granted shall be at the call of the Moderator and shall not exceed five minutes.
- F. REQUESTS TO SET UP DISPLAYS OR EXHIBITS AT THE ASSEMBLY. This paragraph applies to all requests to set up displays or exhibits at the Assembly on behalf of institutions, ministries, or vendors that are not committees erected by the Assembly pursuant to Chapter X.
1. All such requests to set up displays or exhibits shall be made in writing (on official letterhead stationery) and received by the Stated Clerk not later than thirty days before the opening of the Assembly.
  2. The Committee on Arrangements shall determine the boundaries of the meeting hall of the Assembly within which only committees of the Assembly may set up displays or exhibits.
  3. To the extent that the Assembly has control at the meeting facility over displays or exhibits beyond the bounds of the meeting hall, the Committee on Arrangements shall allocate space for displays and exhibits in the following priority based upon whose work is being presented:
    - a. Committees erected by the Assembly;
    - b. Other judicatories of the OPC;
    - c. Seminaries from which the Committee on Christian Education is currently actively recruiting interns;
    - d. Individual members of the OPC;
    - e. Other institutions, ministries, or vendors whose work is not hostile to the Reformed faith as expressed in the Confession of Faith and Catechisms.

Chapter VII. OF DEBATE

1. Each commissioner shall be limited to two speeches per motion. During debate on recommendations arising under a docketed item, a commissioner's first speech shall be limited to 10 minutes and his second to five.
2. No member, in the course of debate, shall be allowed to indulge in personal reflections.
3. If more than one member rise to speak at the same time, the member who is most distant from the Moderator's chair shall ordinarily speak first. In the discussion of all matters where the sentiment of the Assembly is divided, it is proper that the floor should be occupied alternately by those representing the different sides of the question.
4. When more than three members of the Assembly shall be standing at the same time, the Moderator shall require all to take their seats, the person only excepted who may be speaking.
5. Every member, when speaking, shall address himself to the Moderator, and shall treat his fellow members, and especially the Moderator, with decorum and respect.

6. No speaker shall be interrupted, unless he be out of order, or for the purpose of correcting mistakes or misrepresentations.
7. Only properly accredited representatives from corresponding bodies of other denominations shall be seated as corresponding members in the General Assembly of the Orthodox Presbyterian Church.

Chapter VIII. OF DECORUM

1. Without express permission, no member of the Assembly, while business is going on, shall engage in private conversation; nor shall members address one another, nor any person present, but through the Moderator.
2. It is indispensable that members of the Assembly maintain gravity and dignity while judicially convened; that they attend closely in their speeches to the subject under consideration, and avoid prolix and desultory harangues; and when they deviate from the subject it is the privilege of any member, and the duty of the Moderator, to call them to order.
3. If any member act, in any respect, in a disorderly manner, it shall be the privilege of any member, and the duty of the Moderator, to call him to order.
4. If any member consider himself aggrieved by a decision of the Moderator, it shall be his privilege to appeal to the Assembly, and the question on the appeal shall be taken without debate.
5. No member shall withdraw permanently from the Assembly without giving notice to the Moderator.

Chapter IX. OF VOTING

1. Members ought not, without weighty reasons, to decline voting, as this practice might leave the decision of important questions to a small proportion of the Assembly.
2. When the Moderator has commenced taking the vote, no further debate or remark shall be admitted, unless there has evidently been a mistake; in which case the mistake shall be rectified, and the Moderator shall recommence taking the vote. The Moderator shall determine when all the ballots have been collected, and thereupon announce the closing of the poll. Should the hour for adjournment or recess arrive during the voting, it shall be postponed to finish the vote, unless the majority shall vote to adjourn; in which case the voting shall, on the reassembling of the Assembly, take precedence of all other business till it is finished.
3. The yeas and nays on any question shall not be recorded, unless one third of the members present request a roll-call vote. If division is called for on any vote, it shall be by a rising vote without a count. If on such a rising vote the Moderator is unable to decide, or a quorum rise to second a call for "tellers," then the vote shall be taken by rising, and the count made by tellers, who shall pass through the aisles and report to the Moderator the number voting on each side.
4. When available, electronic voting may replace other means of voting with appropriate adjustments to conform as closely as possible with the rules given above.
5. In all elections a majority of the ballots cast shall be requisite.
6. In elections when the number of nominees exceed the number of persons to be elected, if after the first balloting the required number of persons is not elected, the name of the person or persons receiving the lowest number of votes shall be dropped from the list of nominees on each succeeding ballot, provided that the resultant number of remaining nominees be never less than one more than the number of persons to be elected. If the Moderator deem it wise in view of a long list of nominees for a particular office, and there is no objection from the floor, he may declare that a larger number be dropped on the first ballot.

Chapter XIV. QUALIFICATIONS

1. All cases that may arise which are not provided for in the foregoing Rules shall be governed by Robert's Rules of Order.
2. These rules, except this chapter, may be suspended by a two-thirds vote of the Assembly upon motion duly made; they may be amended by a majority vote of the Assembly, the amendment having been proposed to it by a preceding Assembly.

NOTES (Revised 1985):

- a. It is unwise to "move to suspend the Standing Rules" without specifying the particular rule governing the situation. A general suspension of the Rules could result in chaos. If a commissioner desiring a suspension does not know the number of the Rule involved, he should request the Clerks to supply it.
- b. To secure the inclusion of a report in the Minutes without its being read to the Assembly or having been presented to the commissioners in writing at least two weeks prior to the Assembly, one should "move to suspend Standing Rule Chapter V, Section 8, and to include ...(the report by name)...in the Minutes without its being read to the Assembly."
- c. To permit a commissioner to receive full travel money in a case not provided for in the Rules, one should "move to suspend Standing Rule Chapter XII and to grant full travel compensation to _____." It is not necessary to suspend this Rule, however, in cases of "unforeseen emergency"; a simple motion to grant the compensation is all that is needed.

Also, failures to provide proper or sufficient information of identification, prejudicial misstatements of fact, etc., may be reported under this category.
  - b. Exceptions: Violations of the Assembly's Rules for Keeping Standing Committee Records and actions which in substance appear not to conform to the standards of the Church or to be out of accord with the deliverances of General Assemblies may be reported under this category.
5. Before recommending that exception be taken to the minutes of a Standing Committee, the examining Committee shall confer with a member of that Standing Committee or its General Secretary.
6. The Committee shall prepare a report concerning the minutes of each Standing Committee. The filling out of a form designed for the purpose, for each Standing Committee, shall meet the requirements of this section. After action by the Assembly, one copy of the report shall be sent by the Stated Clerk to the Standing Committee. A second copy shall be retained by the Stated Clerk in a permanent file. A third copy shall be kept in the records of the Committee, which shall be maintained in a suitable binder. The custody of the records of the Committee shall be the responsibility of the Stated Clerk in the period between General Assemblies.
7. Notations and exceptions in the Committee's reports shall be disposed of as follows:
  - a. Notations shall normally be sent to the Standing Committees by the Stated Clerk without being read before the Assembly or recorded in its minutes.
  - b. Exceptions shall be read before the Assembly, recorded in its minutes, and disposed of as the Assembly determines.
  - c. The Assembly shall adopt an appropriate motion with respect to the records of each Standing Committee, the following forms being examples:
    - (1) That the records of the Committee on _____ be approved without exception.
    - (2) That the records of the Committee on _____ be approved with the exceptions noted.
8. Reports to the Assembly from the Standing Committees concerning disposition of exceptions taken by past Assemblies shall normally be referred to the Committee without being read before the Assembly, nor printed in its Agenda or Minutes. The Committee shall examine such reports and shall report to the Assembly its judgment as to the suitability of the disposition that has been made. The Committee shall also present recommendations concerning all exceptions taken by previous Assemblies, or Committees, that have not been disposed of suitably.

    - (i) in the case of an approved special relationship (see 7, below); or
    - (ii) with respect to an annual "Special Projects List" that is approved by a program committee and features particular needs (totaling, in the aggregate, not more than ten percent of that committee's approved budget for that year) for which general fund resources are not available (e.g., capital items). The list may be communicated annually to the churches for use in Sunday schools, vacation Bible schools, missions societies, etc.—and to individual members and/or adherents only in response to their request for a copy of such.

7. SPECIAL RELATIONSHIPS

A program committee may, with the approval of the Committee on Coordination, seek to undertake a special relationship with one or more session(s) or presbytery(s) to implement a part of that committee's program with respect to a specific missionary or project. The contemplated special relationship includes a commitment by the session or presbytery to provide financial support for the missionary or the project from sources that are over and above its regular giving to the Worldwide Outreach combined budget. All approved special relationships shall be reviewed by the Committee and reported to the General Assembly annually.

F. GUIDELINES FOR ADVISORY COMMITTEES

1. All members of the Assembly, and such corresponding members and alternates as may be used to advantage, excepting the Moderator, the Clerks, and those commissioners whose presence is needed for presentation or questioning by Temporary or Advisory Committees, shall be assigned to Temporary or Advisory Committees.
2. Recommendations of Advisory Committees shall be considered secondary to the reports and recommendations of the committees whose reports they review; thus the order of consideration of reports and recommendations shall be:
  - a. Report of the committee
  - b. Report of the Advisory Committee
  - c. Recommendations of the committee
  - d. Recommendations of the Advisory Committee (may be moved as amendments to the recommendations of the committee)
3. The Assembly shall recess prior to presentation of the main body of committee reports to permit Temporary and Advisory Committees to meet and do their work.
4. In proposing the assignment of matters and commissioners to Temporary and Advisory Committees, the Stated Clerk, in consultation with the moderator of the previous assembly shall observe the following:
  - a. Commissioners shall not be assigned to Advisory Committees that are to review reports of Standing or Special Committees on which they serve or of which they are employees, except for members of the Committee on Appeals and Complaints, as provided in the Standing Rules of the General Assembly, X,2.b.

5. In discharging their assignments, Advisory Committees shall observe the following:
  - a. Suggestions of Advisory Committees concerning the work of any committee under review shall be given directly to the committee and not brought to the floor of the Assembly, unless they involve a redirection, expansion, or diminution of that work.

- b. Silence by an Advisory Committee with respect to the work or recommendations of a committee under review shall be construed as general approval of the work and concurrence in the recommendations.
- c. Advisory Committees shall not bring recommendations or advice to the Assembly that is critical of or at variance with the work or recommendations of a committee without first conferring with at least one representative of the committee, if there be one available.
- d. Temporary and Advisory Committees shall arrange to have at least two of their members prepared to report to the Assembly on any matter under review, in order to avoid confusion arising from unexpected or early departures of spokesmen from the Assembly. Reports of Advisory Committees shall ordinarily be signed by the chairman.

G. CONSTITUTION OF THE PRESBYTERIAN AND REFORMED COMMISSION ON CHAPLAINS AND MILITARY PERSONNEL

Article I. NAME

The name of this organization shall be the Presbyterian and Reformed Commission on Chaplains and Military Personnel.

Article II. PURPOSES

The Commission is an agent of its member denominations (not an ecclesiastical commission in the technical sense). The Commission was created to assist in carrying out their ministries to members of the Armed Forces and other institutions. Since the primary structure of such ministries is through formal chaplaincies, the principal activity and concern of the Commission shall be involved with chaplains.

In carrying out its mission, the Commission functions in the following ways:

1. By maintaining liaison with the appropriate contact point of each member denomination, and through their various presbyteries, to:
  - a. Provide current information regarding criteria, policies and procedures for the appointment of ministers as chaplains.
  - b. Provide a technical service to the presbyteries by recommending qualified candidates to the chaplaincy.
2. By maintaining cooperative relationships with the Armed Forces Chaplain Board and the leadership of military and other institutional chaplaincies by:
  - a. Certifying to the proper agencies the ecclesiastical endorsements and approvals granted by the member denominations through their various presbyteries.
  - b. Serving as a representative body for problems referred by or concerning chaplains, both individually and collectively.
3. By maintaining contact and liaison with individual chaplains serving in the Armed Forces and other institutions through regular reports, newsletters, written correspondence, and personal visits as authorized by the Commission.
4. By establishing and maintaining methods of liaison with individual congregations of the member denominations to assist them in providing adequate ministry to their members while they are separated from the particular church during periods in the Armed Forces and other institutions.
5. By keeping member denominations informed on significant developments, trends, issues and problems concerning chaplains and members of the Armed Forces and other institutions and to report annually on the activity of the Commission to each member denomination through the proper agencies.
6. By assisting the presbyteries in the promotion of the ministry of the Chaplaincy to the member denominations and their particular churches.

Article III. MEMBERSHIP

The Commission is made up of the following member denominations:

1. Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church
2. Korean American Presbyterian Church

3. Orthodox Presbyterian Church
4. Presbyterian Church in America
5. Reformed Presbyterian Church of North America

Any member denomination may withdraw from the Commission by act of its General Assembly/Synod. Any denomination seeking membership in the Commission shall:

1. Submit a letter of application for membership to the Commission no later than 1 January of the year in which it desires membership.
2. Be approved by vote of all current member denominations at their General Assembly/Synod. Each member denomination or its responsible committee shall elect its representatives to serve as voting members of the Commission, with qualifications and terms to be set by the member denominations.

Each denomination shall be entitled to three Commission members for its first fifty thousand members or portion thereof. One Commission member may be added for each additional fifty thousand members or portion thereof.

The Commission may serve as the endorsing agency for applicants of associate member denominations that are in doctrinal agreement with the standards of the member denominations. The Commission will only entertain applications from denominations that are members of the North American Presbyterian and Reformed Council (NAPARC) for associate membership in the PRCC. Formal applications from associate member denominations will be handled on a case-by-case basis and will be subject to approval at the next meeting of the Commission.

Article IV. INCORPORATION

The Commission shall be incorporated under the corporation laws of the State of Colorado relating to non-profit, religious corporations.

Article V. RULES OF ORDER

The Commission shall regulate its own proceedings in accordance with its Articles of Incorporation, Constitution, By-Laws, and Roberts Rules of Order (current edition). Any portion of the By-Laws and their rules of order, except Article VII of the By-Laws, may be temporarily suspended by a two-thirds vote.

Article VI. FINANCIAL SUPPORT

The Commission shall be financially supported primarily through contributions of member denominations and donations from interested individuals, churches and groups. Commission income shall be supplemented by the dues of endorsed chaplains.

The financial support of the Commission shall be primarily the responsibility of the member denominations, for whom the Commission endorses and supports chaplains.

1. Each denomination shall contribute a specific annual amount for each endorsed chaplain.
2. In addition, the Commission shall be free to communicate with and to receive donations from individuals, churches or other organizations, both within and outside of the denominations.
3. Each denomination shall be responsible for all expenses incurred by its own representatives at any meetings of the Commission or its committees.

Chaplains also have a responsibility to share in the cost of their endorsement and support. Chaplain dues, as distinct from denominational contributions, will be assessed and received as follows:

1. Amounts of chaplain dues shall be reviewed by the Commission at least biennially.
2. Every endorsed chaplain shall pay a designated amount of annual dues. Requests for waivers of dues shall be considered by the Commission when received in writing.
3. A chaplain may request his church, presbytery, or denomination to pay some or all of his dues, or a presbytery or denomination may elect to contribute all or part of their chaplains' dues to the Commission.

4. If a chaplain's dues remain unpaid, and a waiver request is not approved by the Commission, the Executive Director shall inform his denominational representatives on the Commission. The Chaplain's denomination will become responsible for the dues, and will deal with the chaplain through his presbytery as it desires. Failure to pay dues by the chaplain or his supporting church, etc. (see #3 above), or by the denomination to cover for the chaplain (as stated above in this section), may lead to the withdrawal of endorsement.

Article VII. STAFF

The Commission shall have as its chief operating officer an Executive Director, and may hire such other personnel as it may determine.

Article VIII. AMENDMENTS

This Constitution may be amended only by written submission of proposed amendments to each member denomination and by subsequent approval of each denomination at their annual General Assembly/Synod. Proposed amendments shall be provided to members of the Commission with at least twenty days prior notice to the date of the meeting. If a constitutional quorum is present, a 3/4ths vote shall be required to submit a proposed amendment to member denominations' General Assembly/Synod for approval.

APPENDIX A

The following are policy guidelines which apply to the ministry of chaplains of the Orthodox Presbyterian Church serving with the military. They are not changes to the Constitution of the Presbyterian and Reformed Commission on Chaplains and Military Personnel but serve to explain and codify specific issues considered necessary by this denomination.

- 1). Since the Orthodox Presbyterian Church holds that the office of minister, or teaching elder, is given only to biblically qualified men, it is impermissible for any minister of this Church serving as a military chaplain to share in the conduct of any service of public worship where those not meeting biblical qualifications take part in the leading of that worship service. This principle does not prohibit such a chaplain from working with chaplains from other denominations in biblically appropriate areas of cooperative ministry.
- 2). Our chaplains will provide compassionate and caring ministry to all service members and their families regardless of sexual orientation and behavior or the diseases with which they may be afflicted. At the same time we will never condone the sinful and destructive behavior of homosexuals. Those OPC chaplains endorsed by the Commission will continue to preach the whole counsel of God, but are not permitted to conduct divine worship with homosexual chaplains, are not permitted to have homosexual ministry assistants, and are not permitted to perform same-sex marriages.

H. GUIDELINES FOR THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OPERATION FUND

1. Those making contributions for the attainment of the approved budgets of the General Assembly Operation Fund (GAOF) are encouraged to make their checks payable to "The Orthodox Presbyterian Church" and to note "GAOF" thereon.
2. Standing or special committees that draw upon the GAOF for their expenses shall limit their expenses to the amounts set by the Assembly when it adopts the budget for the GAOF, except as follows:
  - a. The Stated Clerk may authorize such a committee to spend up to 10% over its budget, upon request of the committee submitted prior to the incurring of the expense, if in his judgment the expense will be offset by a corresponding under-expenditure elsewhere in the GAOF.
  - b. In situations in which the Stated Clerk and the Trustees of The Orthodox Presbyterian Church jointly determine to be of overriding importance to the Church, they may (if there are sufficient funds on hand in the GAOF) authorize an expenditure in excess of that allowed in a. above, and they shall report their decision (together with the reasons therefor) to the next General Assembly.
  - c. Gifts designated for projects/purposes included in approved budgets shall not increase the total amount budgeted for that committee/cause unless the GAOF has met its budgeted receipts.

- d. Gifts specially designated for projects/purposes not included in approved budgets may be accepted only upon approval by the Stated Clerk (after consulting with the appropriate committee), who shall determine whether such gifts shall or shall not be reckoned in fulfillment of the approved budget.
- e. Gifts received by bequest or from sources outside the Orthodox Presbyterian Church shall not be reckoned as contributing to the fulfillment of the approved budget.
