

The Schedule of Subjects

---

Week 1: Who is God? (pp. 3-11)

- Does God exist?
- Has God spoken?
- What has He said?

Week 2: Who am I? (pp. 12-19)

- Who made me?
- Why did He make me?
- What went wrong?
- How serious is sin?
- What is my future?

Week 3: Who is Jesus Christ? (pp. 20-30)

- Where did He come from?
- Why did He come?
- What is the cross?
- How can I be saved?
- How should I then live?

Everyone thinks about ultimate questions: What is the meaning of life? Who am I? Why am I here? Is there a God and if so who is he? How can I deal with the problems that I face?

Historic Christianity has answers to these questions based on the teachings of the Bible. Many people are not aware of what those answers are. There is little substantive Bible teaching in our day. Thus it is often thought that people who take the Bible seriously must have checked their minds at the door. In fact historic Christianity has a rich intellectual and spiritual heritage which forms the basis for many of the important institutions and traditions and ideas of Western Civilization.

Each Tuesday at 7:30 PM on March 4, 11 and 18

I will conduct a study on the subject of Ultimate Questions in our home. We will be using Ultimate Questions by John Blanchard to help us see how the Bible answers the three ultimate questions.

The setting for these studies is informal. The group will consist of a small number of friends and neighbors whom we have invited. This is a time especially for those inquiring about the Christian Faith, so Your questions and lively discussion will be welcomed and encouraged. If you are skeptical or simply curious you will find this study interesting and perhaps enlightening.

Light refreshments will be served. We will end promptly at 8:30 PM. Those who wish to linger for more discussion are welcome to do so.
