COVENANT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

A CHURCH WITH ROOTS
IN THE PAST
SHOWING GREAT PROMISE FOR THE FUTURE

SEARCHING QUESTIONS...

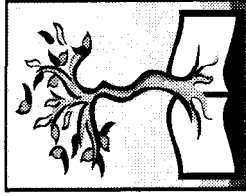

You may struggle with finding your place in the contemporary world. "Who Am I? What is my purpose? What is my identity? Where do I belong?" You may be rootless and without a foundation.

The search for true, lasting friendships and intimate relationships is an endless quest. What about your relationship with God? Is it possible to have an intimate and friendly relationship with Him?

These questions are not answered in a vacuum. The answers have come. God has spoken and God has acted. God uses the term "Covenant" to describe the special relationship that He has set up with His people, both adults and children. Covenant is rich and packed with meaning. It answers the questions of belonging and identity, of meaning and purpose, of community and intimacy, of friendship and relationship.

A CHURCH WITH ROOTS IN THE PAST ...

In His covenants, the great and glorious God comes near to us. He becomes our possession and we become His treasure. He gives us Himself. The sovereign Lord promises to be our friend. Imagine that!

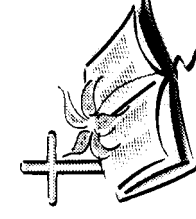

"Covenant" guides our relationship with God, our worship, our identity, the nurture of our children, and our lives. It is the glue that binds us to people of the Bible such as Abraham and David. It connects us to the early NT believers, and to the historic Christian church. It certainly gives us a rich heritage from which to build a church.

God makes many promises to us in His covenant. He especially promises His forgiveness to us. He gives us His lasting and strong love. He gives us a secure foundation because of who He is and what He has promised to be for us. He makes His promises certain and secure in Jesus Christ. Christ is at the center of the covenant.

SHOWING GREAT PROMISE FOR THE FUTURE ...

Because "Covenant" rests on the promise of God and the completed work of Jesus Christ, "Covenant" shows great promise for the future.

Covenant is a place of new beginnings, yet, a church with roots in the past. It is Presbyterian in that it is led by servant-leaders who serve Jesus Christ and His people. Covenant Presbyterian is a church that takes the Bible seriously. The Bible is of central importance to us. We desire to be a community that is informed and formed by his Word. This church that "shows great promise for the future" opened its doors to the community on Sunday, June 17th.

We invite you to a new beginning with us as we worship together this covenantal God. Come find answers to your questions and learn how to have an intimate relationship with God.
